

Dr. Stojan Slaveski

President of Marshall Center - Republic of Macedonia.

Areas of Expertise: Security Sector Reforms, Conflict Resolution, Religious Extremism, Regional Security, National Security and Euro-Atlantic Integration's.

Professional Background:

He has received his Ph.D. in defense and peace studies.

Prior to become a member of European University team, he was a Professor at the Military Academy in Skopje, Director of the Directorate for Security of Classified Information and he served as a military officer in the Army of the Republic of Macedonia.

Published books

- The National Security of the Republic of Macedonia and Euro-Atlantic Integrations,
- European Union Through the Prism of European Security (co-author),
- Interests of the Republic of Macedonia in NATO Membership (co-author),
- Security System and For the Identity of the Contemporary Macedonian Nation.

His research has been published in many home and international magazines.

He is one of the founders and President of the Marshall Center – Republic of Macedonia Alumni Association. The Association as a NGO, organizes traditional Marshall Center Security Forum in Ohrid, Republic of Macedonia.

He is a President of Security and Defense Council of the Liberal-Democratic Party in the Republic of Macedonia.